

Relative clauses

Relative clauses give more information about the person or object in a sentence

The girl ran out of the building could become:

The terrified girl dashed out of the building, which was engulfed in smoke.

Or The petrified girl, who was gasping for breath, struggled to crawl from the burning building.

Success Steps

- Should come after the subject or the object of the sentence (the noun)
- Should add extra information that is relevant
- Remember to wrap relative clauses with punctuation (comma at the start and full stop or comma at the end)
- start with a relative pronoun: who, whose, whom, which, that, where
- Remember to still include descriptive vocabulary

Re-write the following sentences adding relative clauses.

- 1) The dog bit the postman.
- 2) The boy put his hands in the air.
- 3) The lion looked at its prey.
- 4) The captain lifted the trophy.

Relative clauses

Relative clauses give more information about the person or object in a sentence

The girl ran out of the building could become:

The terrified girl dashed out of the building, which was engulfed in smoke.

Or The petrified girl, who was gasping for breath, struggled to crawl from the burning building.

Success Steps

- Should come after the subject or the object of the sentence (the noun)
- Should add extra information that is relevant
- Remember to wrap relative clauses with punctuation (comma at the start and full stop or comma at the end)
- start with a relative pronoun: who, whose, whom, which, that, where
- Remember to still include descriptive vocabulary

Re-write the following sentences adding relative clauses.

- 1) The dog bit the postman.
- 2) The boy put his hands in the air.
- 3) The lion looked at its prey.
- 4) The captain lifted the trophy.

Add the correct relative clause to each sentence

The mischievous boy, _____ , had a red face.

The brave soldier, _____ , saved the other soldiers.

The huge tree, _____ , blocked the sun from the garden.

The beautiful flowers, _____ , attracted bees from everywhere.

who fought courageously
that grew in Paul's garden
who loved to eat strawberries
which was over 250 years old